Message From Premier Ghiz

*O*n behalf of the Province of Prince Edward Island, I would like to extend warm congratulations and best wishes to the Royal Canadian Legion on the occasion of the publication of this eleventh edition of the Military Service Recognition Booklet.

I would also like to take this opportunity to commend the Royal Canadian Legion for its ongoing work on behalf of our veterans and their families to remind us of the importance of paying homage to those who respond to their country's needs, ordinary Canadians who made, and continue to make, extraordinary sacrifices to safeguard our peace and freedom.

Islanders have a long and proud tradition of responding to the call of duty both in times of peace and conflict. This publication serves as a lasting legacy to the commitment and dedication of Island veterans who served our country during the two World Wars, the Korean War, and the Peacekeeping and Afghanistan Missions. This year is particularly significant for veterans of World War II – 2014 is the 70th Anniversary of the D-Day Invasion that changed the course of the Second World War.

Let us continue to honour the memory of those individuals who fought to ensure the freedom we enjoy today.

Message from The President

August 4th, 2014 marks the 100th anniversary of the start of World War I. Canada's participation in the First World War shaped the country and Canadian identity. More than 650,000 Canadians and Newfoundlanders served in the First World War, with more than 66,000 of them losing their lives. The Royal Canadian Legion recognizes the significance of this historic milestone. One of our most important roles is to be the guardians of Remembrance. We do this as a solemn duty to you and to all Canadian veterans. We can never do enough to remember and pay tribute to those who voluntarily served and paid the ultimate sacrifice, those who have served our country with unwavering commitment, dedication and bravery.

On behalf of the Executive Council of Prince Edward Island Command, The Royal Canadian Legion, I wish to express my gratitude to our members, staff and Ladies Auxiliary, extend our thanks to all who provided assistance in making this project a great success. We are grateful to all who provided pictures and information of our veterans.

Through the efforts of this booklet, our organization will continue its strong support in the community to develop and fund programs for our veterans, senior and youth.

“We will remember them.” - « Nous nous souviendrons d’eux. »

DINGWELL, Clifton Seymour

WWI

Clifton was born on September 16, 1897 in Midgell on the Dingwell homestead. He joined the 87th Battalion, 4th Division, Canadian Grenadier Guards from Montreal on February 20, 1918 and was sent overseas with the 11th Canadian Infantry Brigade. Private Dingwell took part in the Battle of Cambrai on September 30, 1918 and was severely wounded. He spent a year convalescing in a hospital in England. He was then sent home and spent another year in the Rena MacLean Hospital for Veterans in Charlottetown. He was discharged on May 28, 1919 and received the Victory Medal and the British War Medal. Clifton passed away on July 23, 1959.

DOUCETTE, Ron

PEACEKEEPING

Ron was born on September 16, 1944 and spent his childhood years in North Rustico, Prince Edward Island. After joining the Navy in 1962, he was posted to Halifax where he married Fran MacKinnon and they had three daughters. In 1976, Ron joined the Military Police and was posted to Ontario where their only son was born. He retired from the Military in 1987 and worked for the Northumberland Ferries and taught First-Aid courses. When his heart condition prevented him from working, he became a passionate bridge teacher and player and was active in church and community organizations. Ron passed away on August 13, 2005.

DOWLING, Aloysius "Al"

WWI

Al was born in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island in 1897. He joined the 25th Canadian Infantry Battalion in 1914 at the age of 17 and served in France and Belgium in WWI. Private Dowling was discharged in 1919. Despite some painful memories, Al recalled finding a valuable violin in a bombed-out building in France. He carried it with him and played it whenever he could, including entertaining the troops on the ship back to Canada. The instrument proved to be a fine copy of a Nicholas Amati violin and was a treasured gift passed down through the family. Al passed away in 1975.

Lest We Forget

Each year on Remembrance Day, we pause and reflect on the sacrifices made by those veterans in time of war. They served their country with valour and distinction. Successive generations who have enjoyed the peace for which they fought owe them an enormous debt of gratitude, respect and admiration. At this time, we hold a special place in our memories for those who made the supreme sacrifice.

Amid the ongoing conflicts that are taking place, Remembrance Day is also a time to rededicate ourselves to the cause of freedom and justice for all people.

GARRETT, Chester

WWI

Chester was born in Cable Head West and moved with his parents to Charlottetown as a young boy. He joined the Canadian Expeditionary Force in World War I and was sent overseas with the No. 8 Siege Battery. After his discharge, he returned to Prince Edward Island and later moved to the United States. He lived in Summerville, Massachusetts where he died and is buried.

GARRETT, Elmore

WWI

Elmore was born in Cable Head West, Prince Edward Island. In 1914 when World War I broke out, he enlisted in the 105th Battalion and was sent overseas where he served as a Private until the end of the war. After his discharge in 1918, he spent several years in Saskatchewan before moving to the United States where he passed away as a young man. His remains are interred in Boston. Elmore used to say, "I did what the devil never did, that is to move out of Cable Head."

GILLIS, Ronald Joseph "Ronnie"

WWI

Ronnie was born in Greenwich on January 27, 1889 and enlisted in the Navy when World War I broke out. After his discharge, he returned to Prince Edward Island and later moved to Boston where other members of his family were living. Ronnie died in Boston in 1934 and was buried there.

MacBETH, Neil Angus

WWI

Neil was born in Forest Hill in 1897. He joined the 105th Battalion, 2nd Siege Battery, on July 12, 1915 and was sent overseas where he served as a Gunner. Neil was discharged in 1919 and returned to Prince Edward Island where he attended the Miller Business College in Charlottetown. He was a member of the Pacific Command Military Rangers (non-active service) during the Second World War. Neil later moved to British Columbia where he died and was buried in 1968.

MacBETH, Samuel William

WWI

Samuel was born in Forest Hill on June 11, 1896. He joined the 55th Division in 1915 before being transferred to the 42nd Royal Highlanders and serving in France. In a Guardian newspaper clipping dated June 14, 1916, Sergeant MacBeth was listed as wounded and he was later taken as prisoner of war. After his discharge, Samuel returned to Prince Edward Island and later attended the Business College in Halifax where he was studying at the time of the Halifax Explosion. He spent his later years in Massachusetts where he died in 1974.

MacDONALD, Charles T. "Ted"

WWII

Ted commanded a section of one of the platoons leading the attack on River Melfa on May 25, 1944. Badly wounded in the back by shrapnel, Corporal MacDONALD led his section some 300 yards to their objective under heavy mortar and machine gun fire. Only after the position had been consolidated and the supporting fire of his section was covering the forward movement of the balance of the company, did he allow his wounds to be dressed. The gallantry, determination and leadership of this non-commissioned officer were instrumental in the company capturing and holding their objective. Ted was awarded a Military Medal for his part in the war in Italy.

MacNEILL, Ralph Warren

WWII

Ralph was born in 1914. While his wife, Anna Isabell, worked on the home front, he was sent overseas at the end of 1941 and served as a Sergeant with the Army's Communications Division in England, France and Germany. After the war, Ralph worked at Island Tel as a lineman, raised a family, joined the Militia as a Sgt Major/Staff Sgt and trained young men and women. Ralph died of cancer in 1972. His great grandson, Zachary James MacKinnon, became a Cadet when he joined the Stratford Branch in his first year of high school and plans to join the Army after high school.

MacNUTT, Albert

WWII

Albert, son of Wallace and Ethel Simpson MacNutt of Darnley, joined the Army in June 1941. He was stationed at Belleville, Penfield Ridge, Dartmouth and Summerside as well as overseas at Bournemouth, England. Leading Aircraftman MacNutt was discharged in 1946.

MacNUTT, Gerald

WWII

Gerald enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1940. His basic training took place at No. 1 Manning Depot in Toronto then he went to Montreal and Belleville for wireless training, bombing and gunnery. He graduated from No. 6 Bombing and Gunnery School at Mountain View, Ontario in September 1941 then spent three months at Debert, Nova Scotia where he completed his Operational Training. On May 15, 1942, Gerald was reported missing over the North Sea after having engaged in an operational mission utilizing Hudson bombers. Sergeant MacNutt was presumed dead for official purposes.

WHITE (LeBLANC), Alban

WWI

Alban, son of Hypolite LeBlanc and Marguerite Barriault, enlisted in the Canadian Army on January 16, 1917. He served in the 105th and 26th Battalions in France during World War I. Alban was discharged on May 19, 1919.

WHITE, Anthony

WWI & WWII

Anthony, son of Hypolite LeBlanc and Marguerite Barriault, served in WWI as a stretcher bearer with the 105th Regiment. While on the front line of battle with shelling going on around him, he retrieved one of his wounded buddies, treated his wounds and brought him back to safety. By his bravery and lack of regard for himself, Private White earned the Military Medal and Bar. He also joined the Veterans Guard of Canada in World War II and accompanied German prisoners to various spots including Cochrane, Ontario. He was stationed in Nova Scotia at Dartmouth, in New Brunswick at St. Stephen and Ripples and in Quebec at Valcartier. Anthony died on June 11, 1975.

WILLIAMS, George Ervin

WWII

George was born to Robert James Williams and Ella Beatrice Arthur in the Bloomfield district of Prince Edward Island. He served as a Sergeant in the Army in Labrador.

WOOD, John Lyman

WWI

John was born in Tryon, Prince Edward Island and enlisted in the PPCLI in WWI. In a February 7, 1917 letter, he said "... The mud is awful, takes a man about ten minutes to go a hundred yards ... A man doesn't have a chance when he gets stuck in the mud and they begin to throw shells at him... We get about one ounce of bread and fruit... Would like if you could send some canned chicken, if some was done up this winter. Wish I was home for a skate with the fellows. Say hello to my girlfriend." John was killed in action on May 3, 1917 in Fresnoy, near Vimy.

YEO, David

PEACETIME

For the Fallen

Laurence Binyon

*With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.*

*Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is a music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.*

*They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds encountered:
They fell with their faces to the foe.*

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

*They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables at home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.*

*But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;*

*As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain;
As the stars are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end they remain.*

In Flanders Fields

Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

A Voice From The Trenches

- unknown author

To the men of loyal Canada
We your comrades do appeal,
Come join us in this awful strife
Our honor for to shield;
We're here for God and righteousness
Our cause is just and plain,
Help us to fight, throw in our might
The Allies cause to gain.

Like you we have our loved ones,
We've left them far behind
To the care of God we've left them,
To them he will prove kind.
For three long years or over
We've stared death in the face,
We're getting weary, brothers,
Come help us hold our place.

We're in the trenches waiting
You, our brothers, to receive,
Do hustle up, dear brothers,
The pressure to relieve.
We've got the enemy going,
We've got God on our side,
Do come in for the windup
And all honours we'll divide.

The Staff and Residents at the Dr. John M. Gillis Memorial Lodge would like to commend The Royal Canadian Legion on this War Time Service Recognition Booklet - Volume Ten.

It is significant that we remember the mission of The Royal Canadian Legion in years to come. It should remind us of the great sacrifices many men and women made in order to protect our great country during times of war.
