Message from Premier Wade MacLauchlan

On behalf of the Government of Prince Edward Island, it is my pleasure to extend congratulations and best wishes to the Royal Canadian Legion on the occasion of the publication of the fifteenth edition of the Military Service Recognition Booklet.

Islanders have had a long and proud tradition of responding to the call of duty both in times of peace and in conflict. This annual publication recognizes the importance of paying tribute to those who responded to our country's needs, ordinary citizens who have made and continue to make extraordinary sacrifices to safeguard our peace.

Let us continue to honour the memory of those who have gone before us and support those who continue to ensure the freedom we enjoy today.

Wade MacLauchlan

Message from the President

This year commemorates the 100th anniversary of the signing of the armistice which ended WWI at 11:00 a.m. on the 11th of November 1918.

This "War to End All Wars" was followed by WWII, the Korean War, peace-keeping missions, NATO operations, and the Afghanistan War. The Canadian military's men and women have always been ready and willing to assist their allies in the pursuit of democracy, freedom and human rights.

The PEI Command of The Royal Canadian Legion, its members, staff and Ladies Auxiliary, wish to extend our thanks to all who provided assistance in making this book a huge success. The individuals who were so kind to forward pictures of the Veterans with brief biographies; our thanks go out to all of you.

Let us remember all who did not return and those that have served and are suffering from the effects of conflict whether physical or mental.

This book will enable PEI Command to continue to provide support to our Veterans, youth, and various community programs.

Thank you.

□ We will remember them. □ □ Nous nous souviendrons d'eux. □

Message from the Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island

Canadians remember and express their gratitude to those who served to protect our country and to ensure that our rights and freedoms are protected. One of the primary duties of The Royal Canadian Legion, is to continue the tradition of Remembrance through their many activities.

La Légion royale canadienne joue un rôle primordial pour assurer la souvenance des Canadiens envers les personnes qui ont répondu à l'appel de servir notre pays en temps de guerre ainsi qu'en temps de paix.

On behalf of Her Majesty The Queen, I thank the Prince Edward Island Command of The Royal Canadian Legion, your partners and supporters for producing this significant booklet. May it serve to remind us to remember and to honour those veterans from Prince Edward Island who served.

SUTTON, John Brian*PEACETIME

John was born in Brandon, Manitoba in 1943. He served in the Air Force during Peacetime in Canada and Germany. He is a two year member of the Kensington Legion Branch 9.

TAYLOR, Harry Edward

Harry was born in Hamilton on April 11, 1919 son of the late Major and Jessie (Morrison) Taylor. He married Viola (Allen) and they have three children; Allen, Chelton and Ferne. Harry passed away on September 9, 2010 in Kensington.

TESKEY, James*WWII

James Teskey of Southport has some bleak memories of his four years fighting overseas during World War II. He ate mutton and black bread almost every night, rushing onto the beach at Dieppe and spending months in an army hospital hoping to get his sight back. He has bright memories of The Sally Ann – better known as the Salvation Army. “Ninety-five percent of the comforts we enjoyed during the war was because of the Salvation Army” said Teskey. “They made the task we had to do much more bearable. They gave you a taste of home”. The taste of home included items like chocolate, candies, coffee, tea, sandwiches, Christmas cakes and plum pudding. The Sally Ann set up shop almost everywhere soldiers were. The workers sold or often gave away these so-called luxury items to soldiers. The Salvation Army had workers at Armed Forces bases on the Homefront as well as camps and even near combat sites overseas. When he left Canada to go overseas in 1939, the old Sally Ann was at the train station in Truro giving away shaving cream, toothpaste, toothbrushes, sewing kits, writing papers and envelopes.

The Staff and Residents at the Dr. John M. Gillis Memorial Lodge would like to commend The Royal Canadian Legion on this Military Service Recognition Booklet - Volume Fifteen. It is significant that we remember the mission of The Royal Canadian Legion in years to come.

It should remind us of the great sacrifices many men and women made in order to protect our great country during times of war.
