ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION - MILITARY SERVICE RECOGNITION

*I*slanders have a long and proud tradition of answering the call of duty in times of conflict and in times of peace – protecting and helping those in need here at home and around the world.

We are privileged to live with the freedoms that we have been afforded. Freedoms that brave individuals have chosen to serve for and uphold ... freedoms that we can innocently take for granted. It is important that we honour them and those who carry on their legacy.

On behalf of the Government of Prince Edward Island, I offer warm wishes and congratulations to the Royal Canadian Legion on the annual publication of the Military Service Recognition booklet.

Message from the President

June 6th, 2019 marks the 75th anniversary of the D-Day battles which freed Europe from the Nazi tyranny. A tour of the many European Commonwealth war cemeteries will show you that this was at a tremendous cost to our nation and to our precious Island homes. Some of the epitaphs written on the tombstones of fallen PEI comrades tell the sad story:

“Lonely, dreary are the days since one we love went away. Lovingly remembered by his grandmother.”

“The blow was hard, the shock severe to part with one I loved so dear. Mother”

“We think of him in silence his name we oft recall, all that’s left to answer is his picture on the wall.”

“Free men everywhere should remember them on your name.”

We can be very proud of the role our Canadian soldiers played in both world wars and subsequent peacekeeping and military actions that have taken place around our world. These epitaphs ring true even today for loved ones whose sons or daughters have suffered or died for our country.

This is why the Legion exists, so that Canada will never forget and why we advocate for the care and benefits for all who served Canada, regardless of when or where they served. This booklet provides another vital way to remember those who have served.

On behalf of the Prince Edward Island Command executive council of The Royal Canadian Legion, I wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for the countless volunteer hours logged by our members, staff and the Ladies Auxiliary of The Legion.

It is through the strong effort of this booklet and our organization that we will continue our strong community support to develop and fund programs for our Veterans, seniors and youth.

“We will remember them.” - « Nous nous souviendrons d’eux. »

Veteran Information Submission Form	80
-------------------------------------	----

Denotes deceased

All information believed to be accurate at time of submission, October 2019.

About the front cover:

The Cornwall Cenotaph was formed by a committee in late 1918. It was a civilian volunteer group from the local surrounding communities of Cornwall area who organized to raise funds, secure land and develop the Cenotaph site, including the monuments located there today. Since its inception, the Cenotaph Committee has organized and held its annual Remembrance Services on the 3rd or 4th Sunday in September each year. Today most Remembrance Services are held on Armistice Day, November 11th. The tradition of holding Remembrance Day Services on November 11th had not yet begun when the original committee chose its September date when traveling to the Service would be easier than later in the Fall. The Committee has continued this tradition of holding the service at the same time and place each September since its inception in 1919. September 15th, 2019 marks its 100th service.

Message from the Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island

Canadians remember and express their gratitude to those who served to protect our country and to ensure that our rights and freedoms are protected. One of the primary duties of The Royal Canadian Legion, is to continue the tradition of Remembrance through their many activities.

La Légion royale canadienne joue un rôle primordial pour assurer la souvenance des Canadiens envers les personnes qui ont répondu à l'appel de servir notre pays en temps de guerre ainsi qu'en temps de paix.

On behalf of Her Majesty The Queen, I thank the Prince Edward Island Command of The Royal Canadian Legion, your partners and supporters for producing this significant booklet. May it serve to remind us to remember and to honour those veterans from Prince Edward Island who served.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE Legion

The year 2019 marks the 100th Anniversary of the Provincial Command of what is now The Royal Canadian Legion.

On the 24th of September 1919, Veterans from seven branches of the Great War Veterans' Association met in Charlottetown and formed a Provincial Command of the association. At that time there were eight branches of the G.W.V.A. on Prince Edward Island: Charlottetown, Summerside, Tignish, Alberton, O'Leary, Souris, Georgetown, and Montague. All the branches except Montague were represented at the meeting.

The meeting elected the following members:
President - D. A. McKinnon, Charlottetown; Vice-

President - J. F. Sterns, Souris; Second Vice-President - J. W. Whitney, Summerside; and Executive Members - A. E. B. Murphy, Tignish; W. W. Rogers, Alberton; Robert Horne, O'Leary; R. R. McLean, Georgetown; and Reg Doiron, Montague.

In 1925 the G.W.V.A. joined with other Canadian Veteran groups and formed the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League, and in 1958 the name was shortened to just the Canadian Legion. Finally, in 1960, by Royal Assent, the Legion became The Royal Canadian Legion.

Note: Information in this article accredited to "The Island Farmer", 1st Oct. 1919 and the Legion archives.

This is a list of the original Provincial Command members elected at that first meeting:

Daniel Albert MacKinnon D.S.O. Rank: Major

Served from January 17, 1916 until January 31, 1919 in the Army with the 11th Brigade Howitzer Ammunition Column CFA in Canada, England, and France.

John Franklin Sterns M.C. Service Number: 30716 Rank: Captain

Served from August 3, 1915 until January 1, 1919 in the Army with the second 98th Canadian Siege Battery and 1st Canadian Heavy Artillery in Canada, England, and France.

William Joseph Whitney Service Number: 165 Rank: Corporal

Served from December 7, 1914 until May 14, 1919 in the Army with the 2nd Heavy Artillery in France.

Alfred Edgar Burke Murphy M.C. Service Number: 15379 Rank: Lieutenant

Served from January 13, 1915 until December 6, 1918 in the Army with the 2nd, 4th, 5th, 8th, Heavy Balty., 3rd Brigade, and the Canadian Artillery Regimental Depot in Canada, England, and France.

W. Wendell Rogers M.C. Rank: Captain

Served from 1916 until 1919 in the Army with the Royal Flying Corps in England and France.

Russel Robertson MacLean Rank: Lieutenant

Served from February 23, 1916 until January 27, 1919 in the Army with the 105th Battalion, 15th Reserve Battalion, 26th Battalion, and the NB Regiment Depot in Canada, Holland, and France.

Robert Edgar Horne Service Number: 33844 Rank: Sergeant

Served from September 16, 1914 until August 15, 1919 in the Army with the Canadian Army Medical Corps in France.

Reginald Andrew Doiron M.M. Service Number: 85705 Rank: Lieutenant

Served from December 2, 1914 until April 3, 1919 in the Army with the 23rd Battery CFA, 6th Brigade CFA, 2nd Brigade CYA, 12th Brigade CFA, and the 9th Brigade CFA in Canada, England, and France.

This photo was found in an Estate Auction, with no written record of the source of the photo. The only identifier on the photo is handwritten in pencil, August 21, 1918, Charlottetown, but the name is illegible.

Please contact the PEI Command Office at 902-892-2161 if you have any information that may help identify this soldier, so that this Veteran of The Great War can be recognized in a future edition of the Veterans' Service Recognition Book.

LEST WE FORGET

BARTLETT, George Ashley

WWII

George was born on June 3, 1918 in Gaspé Peninsula, Quebec to Walter and Annie Bartlett. He enlisted in the Army on June 19, 1940 in Charlottetown joining the North Nova Scotia Highlanders. He married Leah Jean Campbell in Amherst, Nova Scotia and followed with a son just prior to his deployment overseas. On July 18, 1941 he left Halifax on the SS Orion arriving in England on July 31, 1941. Here he would do more training and which also would see him advance to the rank of Lance Sergeant. On June 3, 1944 he was on his way to France arriving on the beaches on June 6, 1944, D-Day. During Operation Tractable which was fought between 14 to 21 August at Falaise Ridge, he received wounds and the following day succumbed to these wounds. He is buried in Bayeux War Cemetery in Calvados, France. Also, a headstone is in place in Searletown, PEI, along with Lt. James Arthur Affleck.

BEAIRSTO, Samuel

WWI

Samuel was born in Woodville, Prince Edward Island in 1890. He enlisted in the Army in Charlottetown on April 19, 1915, had basic training in Sussex, NB and departed Halifax for England on June 15, 1915 and arrived in England ten days later aboard the SS Caledonia. After further training in England he disembarked in Boulogne, France on September 15, 1916. Samuel fought in the battles of Ypres in 1915, St. Eloi in 1915, the Somme in 1916 and Vimy in 1917. He was appointed as an Armourer on December 1, 1916 and graded for purpose of pay only as a Regimental Corporal. On January 16, 1917 he was sent to the #5 Canadian Field Ambulance with a contusion Back W caused from shrapnel then transferred to the 3rd Canadian Field Ambulance on January 17, 1917 and returned to duty on January 24. On the first day of the Vimy battle on April 9, 1917, Samuel was killed in action in the field. In the two years that he served with the CEF he only took ten days furlough which he had spent in London. The Memorial Cross was awarded to his mother, Isabelle, on August 24, 1921.

Dear Canadian Veterans:

Thank you for your willingness to defend the rights and freedoms of all Canadians. Because of your sacrifices and achievements, we are able to live in a land of peace and freedom.

Your courage offered a sense of hope to Canadians when we needed it most. It is that same desire to extend compassion that motivates us to restore dignity in Canada's most vulnerable.

CAIRNS, James Ambrose

WWI

James was born in Emerald, Prince Edward Island on March 16, 1895 to Terrence and Elisabeth Cairns. He worked with the Royal Bank of Canada until he enlisted in the Canadian Army in Liverpool, NS in 1916. On successful completion of Officer Training, James went overseas, once there growing eager to go to the front, he surrendered his commission and went as a Private with the Nova Scotia Rifles also known as the MacKenzie Battalion. He was killed in action near Neuville-Vitasse village which was under the control of the Germans on June 13, 1918. To protect their positions, the Germans had a series of trenches called the Maze. It was in these trenches that James was wounded, when a German shell burst nearby striking him in the head which caused his death the following morning. James is buried at Bac-du-Sud British Cemetery, Pas de Calais, France.

MacPHAIL, John Angus

WWII

John was born on February 3, 1923 in Argyle Shore, Prince Edward Island, the son of Neil and Catherine MacPhail, of Argyle Shore, Prince Edward Island. He served with the HMCS Louisburg, Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. He died on February 6, 1943, at age twenty, cause of death unknown. He is peacefully resting at the Halifax Memorial, Nova Scotia, Canada.

MacPHEE, Arnold

WWII, SPECIAL DUTY AREA & PEACETIME

Arnold was born on October 17, 1924, in Clyde River, PEI. He had to wait until he was old enough to join the Royal Canadian Navy during World War II, at this time he was required to have his parents' approval to join. It would be late 1942 or early 1943 before he would see service at sea. Following the war Chief Petty Officer 1st Class Arnold MacPhee would take his release but his life as a civilian was short lived. He re-joined the RCN and made it his long-time career. During his service he received many Military awards and medals. Following his retirement from the Navy, Arnold and his wife Evelyn Scott, formally from Meadow Bank, would leave the home and family and friends to move to Meadow Bank. Arnold and Evelyn had a large family of two boys and three girls. Sadly Arnold would only see his retirement until 1990 at which time of his passing at 66 years of age.

MacPHEE, Daniel

WWI

Daniel was born on December 23, 1897 in Riverdale, Prince Edward Island, the son of Angus and Drucilla MacPhee. He served with the Canadian infantry (Manitoba Regiment) and was killed in action on August 24, 1918 at age 22. He is peacefully resting at Hillside Cemetery, Le Quesnel, France.

The Staff and Residents at the Dr. John M. Gillis Memorial Lodge would like to commend The Royal Canadian Legion on this Military Service Recognition Booklet - Volume Sixteen. It is significant that we remember the mission of The Royal Canadian Legion in years to come.

It should remind us of the great sacrifices many men and women made in order to protect our great country during times of war.
